We have the impression that it is doing its work well and will, at the conclusion of its labors, present the merited no blame, but, indeed, deserved people of Ohio with the best Constitution they have ever had. The past few weeks have been chiefly occupied in considering the article on the Judiciary. The new Supreme Court will consist of five judges, to be elected by the State at large for ten years. The first judges, however, will be elected for two, lour, six, eight and ten years respectively. By this means one judge will be elected every alternate year, and the long term will prevent any sudden change of the court by the success of either political party. This is a wise conservative provision, and visions were being drawn up in Italy for will remove the Supreme Court as far from evil political influences as well can be under the elective system. be under the elective system.

MRS. MYRA CLARK GAINES.

To-day a bill was filed for Mrs. Myra Clark Gaines in the Equity Court for an injuction against Caleb Cushing, on which Judge Wylle granted a restraining order returnable the 15th inst. Mrs. Gaines says that she conveyed to Cushing certain lands in Louisiana numbering 68,000 acres, and received from him a counter deed acknowledging the trust, and afterwards, in his own name, he obtained a confirmation of the title to said lands, denying her the right to any interest in them. She now saks for an injunction to prevent the respondent from receiving patents and certificates for said lands from the Interior Department.
